

Early Years Leadership Cluster

Are you an Early Years Co-ordinator, Assistant Headteacher, or an EYFS teacher who aspires to be a leader? Would you like to network with others in your position?

We think that leadership matters to every early years teacher. We are all leading complex teams We have set up this group for you, so that:

- You can access help, support and practical advice if you are working on the NPQML or NPQSL qualifications;
- You can explore some of the issues and dilemmas of early years leadership with your peers and colleagues, in a safe place;
- You can feel confident and prepared about key tasks like monitoring quality, self-evaluation and preparing for Ofsted.

The group is facilitated by Julian Grenier and Lesley Webb from Sheringham Nursery School. You are welcome to drop in to any or all of our sessions during the year and to sign up to our group email so you can share ideas and experiences whenever it suits you.

Endorsements

The Early Years Leadership Cluster provides a relaxed, professional and friendly arena to access support and advice from fellow professionals who share the same motivation and passion for Early years issues in leadership. The facilitators support, stimulate and nurture your confidence to tackle the difficulties of leadership.

Tim Hawley, Assistant Head Teacher, Ronald Openshaw Nursery Education Centre

Working with the Teaching School has really helped me to understand and develop my role as the Early Years Leader in school. It was a safe, supportive place in which to talk through any issues and uncertainties and that enabled me to feel confident when preparing for and talking to Ofsted.

Caron Harrison, EYFS Co-ordinator, Odessa Infant School
